

The Vision Tree Workshop

I'm Listening. You're Listening. Why aren't We Communicating?

We know that we are all very different and our diversity is our strength. We are taught reflective listening to break down the communication barriers, but it doesn't always work.

This fun workshop provides a very pragmatic method of improving communication between coworkers and with customers. Time saved avoiding misunderstanding and gaining agreement on critical decisions is money in the bank.

Husbands and wives, parents and children, co-workers, team members, managers, and government boards (schools, villages, townships, libraries, park district; etc.)

The four-hour workshop includes a three-step approach to connecting.

- 📖 Understand yourself
- 📖 Understand others
- 📖 Adapt your behavior to successfully connect with others

The objective of this workshop is to provide participants with an easy method of identifying how they should act when relating to other personality types.

The workshop includes a self assessment to determine the participants' personality types and an easy way to identify other personality types so you will react correctly in every situation. You will have fun while learning how to be successful.
